1. Script for the Scout Rank Advancement

Congratulations to those that Scouts who have achieved the Scout Rank.

The Scout Rank signifies the beginning of the Scouting Adventure. The scouting adventure begins by building on the three key elements of scouting . . . the Scout Oath, Scout Law, Scout Motto . . . with the spirit of Scouting.

To enter scouting as a Scout rank, these scouts had to demonstrate:

1. The scout sign, scout salute and scout handshake.
2. That he understands and agrees to live by the Scout Oath, Scout Law, Scout Motto, Scout Slogan, and the Outdoor Code.
3. He knows the description of the Scout Badge.
4. That he knows the square knot, which is a joining knot signifying his joining the Boy Scouts.
5. He has the Scout spirit and has participated in a Scoutmaster Conference where he demonstrated the above requirements and was introduced to the Scouting Adventure.

2. Script for the Tenderfoot Rank Advancement

Congratulations to those Scouts that achieved the Tenderfoot Scout Rank.

Attainment of the Tenderfoot Rank is the first earned rank by the scout in the Scouting Adventure. By building upon what the scout learned in earning the scout rank, the scouts earning the Tenderfoot Rank are beginning to learn the basic scout skills . . . the skills that will serve him as a scout and hiker . . . and will enable him to "be prepared".

To attain this rank, a scout must demonstrate basic scout skills including:

1. Demonstrating that he has the skill to tie knots and knows the use of the half hitch and taut line knots, and knows how to whip and fuse the ends of a rope.
2. Knowing the rules of safe hiking and the buddy system.
3. Spending one night on a group campout where he also participated in the preparation and cooking of a meal, and identified local poisonous plants.
4. Demonstrating how to display, raise, lower and fold the American Flag.
5. Practicing and showing improvement in five physical exercises.
6. Demonstrating the Heimlich maneuver and described its use.
7. Demonstrating his knowledge of basic First Aid for minor injuries.
8. Participating in a Scoutmaster Conference and a Board of Review where he confirmed that he met the requirements for the Tenderfoot rank.

4. Script for the First Class Rank Advancement

Congratulations to those Scouts that achieved the First Class Scout Rank.

The First Class Rank signifies that the Scout has mastered basic scouting skills and demonstrates the scout spirit. With the mastering of the basic skills, our First Class Scouts now enter into a different phase of scouting. The First Class Scouts will be judged on their progression of leadership skills, including setting the example of scout spirit, assisting the younger scouts, and taking active leadership responsibilities in the troop.

To attain First Class, demonstrating the mastering of basic scout skills, our scouts have:

1. Participated in ten separate Troop activities, three of which must be overnight campouts.
2. Demonstrated how to find the compass directions day or night without using a compass.
3. Demonstrated Orienteering and measurement skills in the field that cover at least one mile.
4. Participated in the menu planning, preparation and cleanup for your patrol for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Served as Patrol Cook on one campout.
5. Discussed Constitutional rights and obligations with a civic leader, teacher, judge, or attorney.
6. Know and demonstrate how and when to use lashings.
7. Demonstrate selected rescue procedures.
8. Know "safe trip afloat" precautions.
9. Demonstrate water survival skills and pass the BSA swimmer test.
10. Demonstrated the Scout Spirit by living the Scout Promise and Scout Oath in everyday life.
11. Participated in a Scoutmaster Conference and a Board of Review where he confirmed that he met the requirements to be a First Class Scout.
